That all paints are alike. We know they're not, any more than all clothes. Poor paint is worse than useless as it takes just as much time to put it on as a good paint, and is never satisfactory. Don't experiment, we know you will be satisfied with

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS.

They're made for painting anything paintable. A special paint for each surface, not one slapdash mixture for all.

NEW CAPITOL BUILDING.

Work on the Structure Rapidly Progressing—
Manderfield Street Will Soon
Be Opened.

Work was resumed on the capitol this morning after an idleness of several weeks on account of cold weather. During the past two weeks a steam stone cutting machine was installed, to take the place of the hand machines, which were slow and unsatisfactory, and the work of preparing the stone is progressing at a rapid rate. A force of men is engaged in unloading brick and other building material, while a number of stone cutters are busily engaged in facing and fitting the blocks for the face of the building. The brick walls are fast rising skyward under the efforts of the masons.

The building, although not yet up to the second floor, begins to show the outlines which the completed structure will carry. The stone facing is carefully dressed and fitted, presenting a smooth and pleasing effect, well set off by the undressed stone of the foundation. The carpenters are following the masons as closely as possible, and to state a cold fact, work is being crowded as fast as careful work will permit.

On the outside of the stockade a number of men are preparing for the opening of Manderfield street, along the north end of the grounds, by resetting the stone wall and iron fence. At the present rate of progress the work on this time on, and to have the entire building almost finished before inclement weather comes next fall.

It is the intention of Mr. Rapp, the architect, to diligently prosecute the construction of the building from this time on, and to have the entire building almost finished before inclement weather comes next fall.

At that hour the court assembled in the court room upstairs, for the accommodation of the vast crowd that gathered to listen to the hearing.

The prisoner was on hand with his attorney, E. V. Chavez. The territory was represented by District Attorney Finical, Judge Heacock and Elfigo Baca, the mayor of Socorro, who will assist the district attorney.

As soon as the court was called to order, District Attorney Finical made a motion against the prisoner. This was done for the purpose of having the preliminary hearing of Gonzales before some other justice than Duran.

The motion was opposed by Attorney Chavez and arguments pro and con were made by the opposing counsel on the question whether the justice could dismiss or not. The prosecuting attorneys argued that the question of dismissal was a matter for the district attorney, and not for the justice of the peace.

After listening to the arguments, Justice Duran took them under consideration until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

There will be the regular weekly meeting of the court at 10 a. m. tomorrow, at the hall on lower Frisco street this evening at 7:30 sharp. Work in the de-greases.

The destruction of the U. S. battleship Maine is still the general topic of conversation among all classes of citizens and news concerning the affair is eagerly sought after.

The sprinkling cart could be used with benefit now, but as the team of horses owned by the city took a notion to die, the chances for having the streets sprinkled are few and far between.

Hon. Elfigo Baca, mayor of Socorro, has been retained by friends of the deceased to assist District Attorney Finical in the prosecution of Manuel D. Gonzales for the killing of Frank A. Gutierrez.

The demand for literature concerning and descriptive of New Mexico continues unabated. Many letters of the kind named are received daily at the New Mexican office and are promptly attended to.

The court of private land claims closed its sessions yesterday, and the judges of the court have all left for their respective homes, except Judge Stone who will take some testimony in Mexico concerning pending cases.

Company B, First regiment national guards, will hold a dress parade, inspection and review, next Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, on the parade grounds. The members of the company will close the day with a reception and ball at the post hall in the evening.

The Young Men's Amateur Dramatic society will give an entertainment to-night at St. Francis hall. An enjoyable four-act comedy entitled, "The Barber of Seville," will be presented, followed by a dance for all who attend. A good time is assured. Admission, 25 cents.

A special meeting of the New Mexico Horticultural society will be held on Saturday evening, February 26 at 8 o'clock at the office of the Water company. The report of last year will be acted on previous to publication, and various matters of interest to horticulturists such as uniformity of fruit packages, the establishment of a cannery and evaporating works, will be considered.

FLAGS AT HALF-MAST.

Secretary Gage Orders Respect Paid to the Memory of the Men Lost on the Maine.

Collector Morrison received the following telegram from Washington at 2 o'clock this afternoon:

"Display flag at half mast until further orders, in respect of those killed by the explosion on the battleship Maine."

"L. J. GAGE, Secretary."

In less than two minutes after the message, Judge Morrison had the emblem of liberty flying in token of the sorrow felt by this nation.

THE GUTIERREZ KILLING.

Preliminary Examination of Manuel D. Gonzales, Charged With Murder—Case Under Adversment.

The preliminary hearing of Manuel D. Gonzales, of Los Ranchos de Albuquerque, charged with the murder of Frank A. Gutierrez took place yesterday afternoon at Albuquerque, before Justice of the Peace Duran. The citizen gives the following particulars as to the hearing:

At that hour the court assembled in the court room upstairs, for the accommodation of the vast crowd that gathered to listen to the hearing.

The prisoner was on hand with his attorney, E. V. Chavez. The territory was represented by District Attorney Finical, Judge Heacock and Elfigo Baca, the mayor of Socorro, who will assist the district attorney.

EXTRA COPIES OF GOVERNOR'S REPORT

Great and Constant Demand for Copies—
One Thousand Extras Ordered and Received at the Executive Office.

Governor Otero has received 1,000 extra copies of his annual report for 1907 from the government printing office at Washington. These copies were ordered by the governor on his own responsibility in order to meet the demand. Hundreds of inquiries and request for copies have been received during the past few months by him. The first issue of 1,000 copies, furnished by the United States senate, and its distribution through the country has already done the territory much good and its further distribution will be of still more benefit. The territorial board of immigration has agreed to pay one-half of the cost of the additional 1,000 copies ordered and the counties along the line of the Santa Fe railroad should pay the remainder. This divided, the expense will be trifling for each county participating. It is certainly for the good of these counties and of the territory as a whole that this course should be pursued.

LAS VEGAS HAPPENINGS.

Pedro Ortiz has been appointed janitor at the county court house and his ambition is gratified.

The Optic clicks at the fact that alleys and vacant lots are being used as dumping grounds. A just kick.

Judge Lowell Longhery, special attorney for the Department of Justice, is in Las Vegas, taking depositions in Indian deprecation claims.

Charles Rosenthal would like to be a member of the board of regents of the Las Vegas Normal school and is circulating a petition in his favor.

W. E. O'Leary, final referee in the case of H. Tellebaum and P. Saville, has rendered his decision in favor of Mr. Saville, to the amount of $238.

Efforts are making for the release from the penitentiary of Francisco Valdegas, an old man who has served 14 years of a 60-year sentence, for incest.

The Las Vegas Optic publishes the canon, that Sheriff H. O. Bursum is a candidate for the position of superintendent of the territorial penitentiary.

Captain L. C. Fort is in Mora, investigating the circumstances connected with the murder of the woman in that county about ten days ago. Two parties have been arrested on suspicion.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugenio H. Baca, Tuesday afternoon, the infant piece of humanity surviving birth but a short time. The mother is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Dr. Milligan has returned from Anton Chico and reports the condition of Father Rodon as serious. The injuries received by the priest were caused by being thrown from a buggy and the slight of the right eye has been destroyed.

A meeting of the local directors of the New Mexico & Southern Pacific, from Trinidad to Albuquerque, was held at the office of Judge H. L. Waldo, on Tuesday, there being in attendance Solicitor Waldo, R. J. Palen, of Santa Fe; M. S. Otero, of Albuquerque; Jefferson Reynolds and F. A. Manzanarez, of this city. Resolutions authorizing certain changes on the line in Bernalillo county so as to avoid wash-outs and to provide for new stockyards at Watrous were passed.

Says the Optic: The opening evening of the Jewish fair was what everyone anticipated—an overwhelming success. Such an assemblage of beauty and worth this city has seldom seen. The entire community seemed to have turned out to do honor to the occasion. The opera house was decorated with true artistic skill, while the booths presented a variety of rich and beautiful objects, dazzling to the eye and impressive to the imagination.

Hillsboro Mining Notes.
Robin, Marey & Co. will ship another carload of lead carbonates from the Smuggler and Percha mines this month. Spencer, Scanlon & Co., had a 90-ton lot of their ore treated at the Porter mill this week, with very satisfactory results.

Shipments of ore from the Snake and Opportunity mines continue to increase in quantity and maintain a high average value.

At the Eighty-five some good ore is appearing in the drift. The re-timbering of the shaft has been completed over the dangerous portion.

The Wicka mine will be represented at the Porter mill next week, with a large lot of second-class ore, for trial of the merits of the Wolfley concentrator.

The Llewellyn Cyanide company have ten men at work on the El Oro mine and have men getting out ore in other directions.

It is intended to start the works with a daily supply of about 30 tons.

A lot of 30 tons of second-class ore is being handled to the Porter mill, run by J. E. Collard, from the Brush Heap mine for a test, preparatory to the company building a mill in Sawpit gulch, for the joint product of the Brush Heap and Gyp mines.

Output of Hillsboro gold mines for the week ending Thursday, February 10, 1908, as reported for the Advocate: Wick, 30 tons; K. K., 15 tons; Richmond, 45 tons; Happy Jack, 5 tons; Snake group, 100 tons; Opportunity, 25 tons; Sherman, 5 tons; Prosper, 5 tons; Eighty-five, 5 tons; Rex (silver lead) 5 tons; total, 340 tons. Total output since January 1, 1908, 1,190 tons.

OMAHA EXPOSITION MATTERS.

Increased Interest in the New Mexico Exhibits—Meeting of the Commission in Santa Fe on February 26—Vote for Lady for Memorial Medal to Be Then Announced.

At the meeting of the Omaha exposition commission on the 26th various important matters will be considered.

A communication has been received from Professor Carrera relative to his mineral cabinet, which is said to be the most complete in the United States and which received both a medal and diploma at the Columbian exposition.

Mr. Joseph Lowmes, now of Albuquerque, who for three years was chemist at the celebrated beet sugar factory at Grand Island, Neb., also submits propositions of interest relative to the sugar beet exhibit.

Within the past month public interest in the Omaha exposition has greatly increased, but the commission will, of course, have to limit its action to the amount of funds at its disposal. It is hoped that a number of counties will make appropriations at least sufficient to display their own products to advantage.

The vote for the lady whose photograph will be used in preparing the memorial medal will be closed at noon of the day of this meeting, and the result announced in the NEW MEXICAN
